Notes

1. Except for "quote" style questions, any of the "finish" style memory questions may be asked in such a way to require the reference book, chapter and verse. For example, a FTV question may appear in a quiz as a FTV&R (finish this verse and give the reference).
2. When a memory question requires a reference, the quizmaster will wait, without prompting, for the quizzer to provide the reference. If there were minor errors, the quizmaster won't ask the quizzer to repeat the verse(s) until the quizzer has provided the reference.
3. Chicago rules have informally been relaxed recently to allow chapter and verse reference questions to be answered by a word-perfect quotation of the verse. The formal rule is quizzers must provide an answer from the question's verse and formulate an equivalent question if the quizzer jumped before the question was completely spoken.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FOR COACHES

This question book is NOT for quizzers to study! Do NOT give this book to quizzers!

The goal of quizzing is not to help quizzers know the answers, but to help quizzers know Jesus! Quizzers memorize and study God's word, gaining an understanding of the meaning of God's Word, in order to know Him better. Quizzing is a tool to bring excitement and motivation to the process.
