Common Abbreviations

FTV	Finish This Verse	A memory question which begins at the start of a bible verse. This question may be asked as either a "Finish This Verse and Give The Reference" OR "Quote This Verse" question.
FT2V	Finish These Two Verses	A memory question which begins at the start of a bible verse and includes the next verse also. This question may be asked as a "Quote These Two Verses" question.
FT3V	Finish These Three Verses	A memory question which begins at the start of a bible verse and includes the next two verses also. This question may be asked as a "Quote These Three Verses" question.
FT	Finish This	A memory question which can begin anywhere in a bible verse.
FT&N	Finish This and the Next	A memory question which can begin anywhere in a bible verse and includes the next verse also.
FT&N2	Finish This and the Next Two	A memory question which can begin anywhere in a bible verse and includes the next two verses also.
SIT	Situation	A speech or dialog between two or more parties where the question is a quote from the speech or dialog and the answers are from the details surrounding the quote. Answers may come from verses anywhere in the context of the situation.
CV	Chapter and Verse Reference	A reference question where both the question and necessary answer are from a specific bible verse. There may be other verses even within the same chapter with similar wording.
CO	Chapter Only Reference	A reference question where both the question and necessary answer are from a specific bible chapter. There may be other verses in another chapter with similar wording. The question may come from a single verse, but the answer may come from another verse in the same chapter.
CV CO	Chapter and Verse OR Chapter Only Reference	A reference question where both the question and necessary answer are from a specific bible verse, but the question may be asked as either a Chapter and Verse or a Chapter Only question.
QUO	Quote this verse	The verse referenced cannot be asked as a "Finish This Verse" question because the verse begins with the same five words as other verses in the material.
PV	Primary Verse	These verses are highly recommended for their clear, doctrinal importance. Generally, more questions will be formed from these verses.
LL	Little League	Quizzers in grades below 7th grade.
A	A League (aka Junior Varsity)	Quizzers in grades below 10th grade.
B	B League (aka Varsity)	Quizzers below the age of 22.
A/B	A and B League	A combined division including A League and B League.

Notes

1. Except for "quote" style questions, any of the "finish" style memory questions may be asked in such a way to require the reference book, chapter and verse. For example, a FTV question may appear in a quiz as a FTV&R (finish this verse and give the reference).
2. When a memory question requires a reference, the quizmaster will wait, without prompting, for the quizzer to provide the reference. If there were minor errors, the quizmaster won't ask the quizzer to repeat the verse(s) until the quizzer has provided the reference.
3. Chicago rules have informally been relaxed recently to allow chapter and verse reference questions to be answered by a word-perfect quotation of the verse. The formal rule is quizzers must provide an answer from the question's verse and formulate an equivalent question if the quizzer jumped before the question was completely spoken.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FOR COACHES

This question book is NOT for quizzers to study! Do NOT give this book to quizzers!

The goal of quizzing is not to help quizzers know the answers, but to help quizzers know Jesus! Quizzers memorize and study God's word, gaining an understanding of the meaning of God's Word, in order to know Him better. Quizzing is a tool to bring excitement and motivation to the process.
